

Stakeholder Engagement Session

January 29, 2025 from 9:30 – 4:30 pm (eastern)

Session will begin promptly at 9:30 am

Agenda

Stakeholder Company	Speaker	Topic(s)
Opening Remarks and Ground Rules
Clean Energy Buyers Association	Katie Southworth	Long-Term Scenario Development
Energize Strategies	Ted Thomas	Risk reduction benefits of Transmission Benefits of 1920 on scaled reliability solutions
GridStrategies LLC	Zach Zimmerman	Order 1920 compliance timing
Southern Renewable Energy Association	Andy Kowalczyk	Long-Term Scenario Development Stakeholder Coordination
Lunch Break
RMI	Tyler Fitch	Long-Term Scenario Development
Southern Alliance for Clean Energy	Ben Adams	The importance of hourly modeling in evaluation of transmission plan, demonstrated through analysis of the historical coincidence of SERTP utility service territories
Southern Environmental Law Center	Nick Guidi	Project Evaluation Processes Project Selection Criteria
NC Sustainable Energy Association	Justin Somelofske	Policies supporting Alternative Transmission Technologies (ATTs) in planning exercises
Break
The Brattle Group	Michael Hagerty	Long-Term Scenario Development Project Evaluation Processes Stakeholder Coordination Project Selection Criteria
Southwest Power Pool	Clint Savoy	Cost Allocation
Closing Remarks		